

FORMATION OF CIVIL RESPONSIBILITY IN YOUTH THE BASIS OF A STABLE AND PROSPEROUS LIFE IN UZBEKISTAN

TURATOV SHUKHRAT

Teacher of the Jizzakh Polytechnic Institute Jizzakh Uzbekistan

ABSTRACT:

The article analyzes the socio-philosophical importance of the formation of civil responsibility in young people in the process of building a democratic legal state and civil society in Uzbekistan. Attention is also paid to the issue of factors affecting the formation of civil responsibility in young people. The article also examined the issues of increasing the legal literacy of citizens, comprehensive development of medium and small entrepreneurship, formation and strengthening of a sense of responsibility in young people, national self-awareness, restoration of historical memory, raising national pride and pride, strengthening ideological immunity.

KEY WORDS: democratic legal state, civil society, civil responsibility, legal literacy, national self-awareness.

INTRODUCTION:

Today, the construction of a legal democratic state based on free civil society in Uzbekistan is defined as the main goal, and in this process, the formation and promotion of civil responsibility is of great importance. Civil responsibility includes the conscious attitude of citizens to the achievements and successes achieved in the process of democratic development of society, the process of further multiplying the achievements and actively participating in their use.

Civil responsibility is a continuation and inseparable part of democratic changes in society, and society in its democratic development is not limited to granting citizens universal rights, such as equality, freedom, unity, but also requires observance of these rights, the use of their rights creatively, in the interests of society. The more progress and growth democracy in the life of society, the higher the responsibility of the citizens in it also increases and increases. In the process of restoration of democratic legal state and civil society in Uzbekistan, a citizen will be able to take an active part in solving the problems of society in the case of reliance on existing rights.

Today, Uzbekistan pays great attention to the issue of formation of civil responsibility in its citizens, creatively using the achievements of developed countries in the field of science, culture, statehood, law, politics, diplomacy and economic development. The issue of the formation of civil responsibility of the younger generation in Uzbekistan is a topical issue today.

MATERIALS AND METHODS:

Another important task of us is the consistent implementation of the principle on the interdependence of mutual responsibility, rights and duties between citizens, state and society, - said the president of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev, - this principle is the constitutional basis that ensures effective cooperation between the state and the individual, state and civil society in solving important tasks facing our country. We are all equally responsible for the prosperity of our motherland - citizens, society and the state, for the strengthening of peace and stability in our country, for the preservation, enrichment of our historical, spiritual and cultural heritage and for the decoration of future generations. We must further strengthen the work carried out in order to preserve and strengthen the atmosphere of friendship and harmony, mutual respect and harmony between representatives of different nationalities and peoples living in our country. [1]

At present, great attention is paid to the issue of increasing legal literacy of citizens, comprehensive development of medium and small entrepreneurship, formation and strengthening of a sense of responsibility in youth in relation to society, independence. The formation of civil responsibility in young people is carried out on the basis of strengthening ideological immunity on the basis of national self-awareness, restoration of historical memory, raising feelings of national pride and pride. The deep acquisition of the achievements of science by young people, the strong study of foreign languages, computer technologies, honest work, business and entrepreneurship, contribution to the economic, socio-political, spiritual and cultural development of Uzbekistan is of great importance in the process of formation and promotion of civil responsibility of young people.

Today, a lot of attention is paid to human rights and their provision in the process of restoration of democratic legal state and civil society in Uzbekistan. For the perfection of a person's personality, civil society is necessary, only a person in civil society can fully manifest all his abilities.

The process of development of democratic traditions is closely connected with the economic potential of the country, the high level of citizens and their political activity, and today the formation of civil responsibility in young people in the process of restoration of the democratic legal state and civil society in Uzbekistan plays an important role. As noted by the president of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev-the result of the reforms carried out in our country today is directly related to the ranks of young cadres who, above all, are highly spiritual, think independently, are able to assume responsibility for the fate and prospects of our homeland.[2].

At present, increasing the legal literacy of citizens, comprehensive development of entrepreneurship in the middle and may serves to formulate and strengthen the sense of responsibility for the independence of young people, citizens of Uzbekistan in relation to society. The fact that the youth of independent Uzbekistan, its citizens are well aware of their duties and rights is an important and necessary condition for the development of society, the constitutional responsibilities of the citizens of the Republic of Uzbekistan can be studied in two groups.

I. The responsibilities of the youth and citizens of Uzbekistan aimed at strengthening the social and state system of the Republic of Uzbekistan are such responsibilities as compliance with the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan, observance of laws, maintenance of labor discipline, conscientiously look at public duty, strengthening of market forms of property, respect of living rules, respect of national dignity, rights of citizens of.

II. The responsibilities of the youth and citizens of Uzbekistan aimed at protecting the interests of Uzbekistan shall include such responsibilities as increasing and protecting the power of the country, protecting the motherland, performing general military service on the basis of the law.

In the conditions of Independence, each form and sphere of responsibility of citizens acquires a new meaning and content, and in the current conditions, such responsibilities as the protection of the world's achievements and reputation in the fields of science, culture, art, sports and other spheres of the preservation of historical spiritual heritage, the attitude of each citizen to the movement, labor, discipline, On September 14, 2016, the law of the Republic of Uzbekistan "on state policy on youth" was adopted, and this law established the main directions of the state policy that will help to form civil responsibility in the youth of Uzbekistan.

In the formation of civil responsibility in young people, the issue of raising the level of legal awareness and legal culture of young people also plays an important role. IQT support and ENCOURAGEMENT of talented and talented young people, creation of conditions for the development of youth entrepreneurship, formation of aspiration to a healthy lifestyle in young people, as well as the creation of conditions for the meaningful Organization of leisure of young people and mass development of youth sports, moral and material support of young families, the implementation of a system of, the development of cooperation with international organizations that carry out activities in the field of realization of the rights and freedoms of young people also plays an important role in the state's youth policy.

"By integrating the National idea into the hearts and minds of our compatriots, the formation of an ideological immune system in them is a periodical demand. This is not a process that takes place in one zone, one by one. Bunda requires activity, factorization of each person. And its implementation will increase the potential of Uzbekistan, help to restore the Great State of its future, strengthen the welfare of our people." [3]

RESULTS:

Today in Uzbekistan, attention is paid to the issue of socio-political activity of young people, the formation of civil responsibility in them. Young people are owners of strong potential and enthusiasm, and this potential only creates a basis for achieving the goals set for the prosperity of the country, for the benefit of society, for the peace of the country and for the welfare of the people. In the process of increasing the activity of young people in ensuring the stability of society, forming civil responsibility in them, the main attention is paid to the following criteria: - peace of the country in the educational work carried out among young people, active participation in strengthening the Vatan independence are recognized as a task that must be conscientiously fulfilled for young people.

Young people are encouraged to take an active part in strengthening the peace and independence of the country on the basis of civil responsibility;

- attention is paid to the issue of internationalization, tolerance, mutual trust, national and religious harmony, integration of the principles of social cooperation into the minds of young people;

- in youth, the skills of protecting the borders of Vatan, fighting against its internal and external enemies, serving Vatan prosperity on the basis of "education against ignorance" are formed with its spiritual and educational potential;

- skills of respect for people, age, respect for national values, non-conduct of various actions contrary to Uzbek morality are integrated in the neighborhood, family, public places;

- the fight against such ill-deeds as corruption, localization and seed-aymakism, which are encountered in society, the implementation of educational work on the improvement of the ecological situation, the preservation of nature also plays an important role in the formation of civil responsibility in young people.

- it is desirable to use the opportunities of mass media in the establishment of democratic values in the minds of young people, to promote the role of mass media in the active participation of young people in socio-political processes as the most effective and serious mechanism of political propaganda. [4]

CONCLUSION:

Today in Uzbekistan, all the necessary conditions are created for the implementation of the life goals of young people, the problems of young people are raised to the level of state policy and a great attention is paid to the formation of civil responsibility in young people. In Uzbekistan, attention is paid to the harmony of education and upbringing in the education of young people. The education of young people in high moral and disciplined manner, their quality education, and their maturation in the spirit of patriotism are recognized as an important factor in the development of Uzbekistan. The formation and development of civil responsibility in young people is an important basis of social stability, development of society and achievements in Uzbekistan, the issue of educating young people who are aimed at a specific goal and who are motivated on the basis of national idea and ideology is one of the most important tasks facing the state and society in Uzbekistan.

REFERENCES:

- 1) Mirziyoyev Sh.M. The Constitution is a solid foundation of our free and prosperous life and further development of our country //the consent of our people is the highest assessment given to our activities. 2-volume. Tashkent, Uzbekistan, 2018, - P. 367.
- 2) Ergashev I. and others. Independent development and ideological processes of Uzbekistan. Tashkent, world of creativity, 2002, - P 28.
- 3) Saitgasimov A.I. Increasing the socio-political activity of young people is an important criterion of the stability of society / collection of articles of scientific-practical conference "strategy of implementation of state policy on young people: the current situation and prospects for development". Tashkent, 2019 year, - P. 192.