In accordance with the document, it was determined that the Fund will be temporarily placed in the building of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs with the right of free use until a separate building is ready for use.

Large-scale reforms and reforms in our country are carried out on the basis of the noble humanitarian idea that "The necessity of the people is above all else". Today, New Uzbekistan is recognized as a prosperous and prosperous country with strong potential, decent reputation on the world stage, and its prestige is growing more and more.

Today, in our country, necessary conditions have been created to ensure human dignity, freedom, happiness, equal rights, and to reveal all the principles of humanity. This is a practical expression of the principle "The state is for the people". After all, serving a person and his happiness, the interests of the people is considered the main criterion of humanitarianism. Full implementation of the noble principle "For the dignity of man" in our country, ensuring the rule of law and the Constitution, and the peaceful and safe life of every citizen constitute the fundamental essence of the ongoing reforms and are of great importance in the politics of our country.

In order to continue such reforms in the next five years and ensure their integrity, the development strategy of New Uzbekistan was developed based on the principle "From the strategy of actions to the strategy of development". A number of tasks are set as the main goal in the 6th direction of this strategy, which is called Approaching universal problems based on national interests. The goal of the tasks defined in this direction is established as the main task of establishing permanent and effective relations with our compatriots in foreign countries through the "Vatandoshlar" public fund.

It should be noted that during the past period, a number of good works were carried out by the "Vatandoshlar" public fund. In particular, "Vatandoshlar" public fund communicated with more than 1,000 compatriots on social networks in the form of correspondence, and online conversations were held with 300 of them through the Zoom platform.

In addition, more than 30 direct dialogues with compatriots are being organized through pages on social networks. Thousands of young people from ministries, departments and organizations participate in these dialogues and are enriching their experience based on the valuable advice of their compatriots.

Consistent dialogues are being conducted with 175 public associations established by compatriots abroad in order to establish cooperative relations. To date, cooperation relations have been established with about 100 of them, and cooperation memorandums have been signed with 35 of them.

Also, various cultural and educational events and contests dedicated to important dates in Uzbekistan were held with the participation of representatives of diplomatic missions of Uzbekistan in foreign countries, compatriots and representatives of public associations formed by them. At the same time, the projects "Kun oilasi", "Vatandosh olimlar", "Xorijdagi vatandosh tashkilot" and "Sportchi vatandosh" have been organized on the pages of the Foundation in social networks. In a word, the main focus of our activities in the future will be on revitalizing work in this direction.
